Communion to the Homebound—Has illness or fragility prevented you or another member of the parish that you know from attending Mass and receiving communion? Would a visit from a Minister of Communion to the Homebound be appreciated? Whether it's short term or long term there are members of our parish who serve in this ministry of bringing communion to those who are homebound. For more information or to request a visit, please contact the parish office at 763-447-3339.

We continue to take donations on behalf of the below organizations. Containers for these items are available in both the Annex and Narthex.

- Lions Recycle For Sight—Used eyeglasses/sunglasses/hearing aids can be recycled to provide aid to those in need in our communities.
- Soles 4 Souls—Used/old shoes become valuable to those in poorer countries where they are repaired (thus providing employment for the local residents in those countries) and then put to good use. Please be sure that the footwear is attached in pairs and somewhat clean.

Mass Intentions—It is the custom of the Catholic Church that priests remember specific intentions at the celebration of the Eucharist. Normally, an offering (customarily $10 in the Diocese of St. Cloud) is given for a Mass intention. (Can. 946--The Christian faithful who give an offering to apply the Mass for their intention contribute to the good of the Church and by that offering share its concern to support its ministers and works.)

Anyone can request a particular intention for which a Mass can be offered (for a living or deceased person, or for a special intention--in thanksgiving, for peace, healing, etc.). For the month of May there are 3 Mass Intention openings (weekday) and for June there are 12 openings (10 weekday; 2 weekend). If you are interested in scheduling a Mass Intention, please contact Danette at 763-447-3339. NOTE: Current Mass intentions are still being acknowledged as Fr. Mike continues to hold a private Mass each day.

FAITH FORMATION

SACRAMENT PREP UPDATES

All scheduled activities are tentative and subject to guidelines from Bishop Kettler.

FIRST EUCHARIST:

If you have been preparing for First Eucharist this year, please note that all paperwork/handouts are due. They can be dropped at either location in the outside drop boxes. Also, due to probable changes in the Mass schedule this summer, new dates for our First Eucharist celebrations will be determined and offered to the families.

All Sponsor / Candidate Orientation sessions have been cancelled. Families have been notified about the process for receiving their materials and how to proceed with their sponsors.

Sharing & Caring Hands sign-ups: We have been in contact with Sharing & Caring Hands and they are currently still accepting volunteers who choose to come. We will make determinations on our trips there as the dates get closer. If you have concerns about your youth attending, please contact Barb.

For now, please continue to sign up for dates on our webpage: Sacraments>Confirmation

"The works of mercy are charitable actions by which we come to the aid of our neighbor in his spiritual…necessities. Instructing, advising, consoling, comforting are spiritual works of mercy, as are forgiving and bearing wrongs patiently... (Catechism of the Catholic Church #2447)

Planning is well underway for next year's Journey of Faith! Our theme will be "Hearts of Mercy" and will be an in-depth look at the Spiritual Works of Mercy, along with Saints (both people of yesterday and of today) who live and practice these works that call us to live our mission as disciples of Jesus Christ.

As usual, registration for JOF will open on July 1. At this time we are planning for a "regular" Journey of Faith season for 2020-21, but please be assured that we are monitoring the situation and are ready to implement changes and offer options for families if need be due to the pandemic. Keep informed by following our Facebook pages, watching your email, and checking our bulletin.

MUSIC & LITURGY NOTES

MUSIC AND LITURGY

Real Absence...Real Presence: In each Lectionary year, we hear today's first reading from the beginning of the Acts of the Apostles on the Feast of the Ascension. In Cycle A (this year), we might recognize echoes from the gospel for the Third Sunday of Easter of the disciples on the road to Emmaus. In both, the risen Christ appears to his disciples, instructs them, and then disappears from their sight. In both, this is where the true work of the church begins. Christ's presence is no longer confined to Jesus' body but is now embodied by an entire community, sent to be his presence in the world.

We are disciples in that long line of women and men whose ancestors in faith came from those followers of Christ on the road and in that upper room. In some way, at every Eucharist, we, too, are witnesses to the "absence" of Christ that reveals his ultimate and complete presence. What was once visible—Christ—has passed over into mystery, that is, into the sacraments that we celebrate.

We have a choice every time we gather for the Eucharist. We can stay, looking up at the sky, looking for Christ. Or, having been nourished by Word and Sacrament, we can go out, sent to announce the gospel of the Lord, and be his presence to those in need. That is when the real story of ascension begins. Even in these times when we can't 'go and do' as we are accustomed, there are many ways that we can still be the presence of Christ. Our immediate family members deserve our first concern—more patience, help around the house, creative ways to lift one another's spirits. There are many needs during the pandemic and many people with more free time to offer assistance—it might just take a little more effort to search out those opportunities. Even just a friendly smile, a phone call or note, picking up groceries for a neighbor, perhaps just holding a door open for someone, can make that personal connection and show Christ's presence. No matter where we find ourselves, or under what conditions, a spirit of generosity and habit of service can help us all to 'Go Make a Difference'. (Excerpts from Living Liturgy 2020.)

Updates—Any updates regarding the return to public Masses and resuming of music rehearsals and other parish activities will be communicated as soon as possible. Please continue to check emails and the parish website for the latest information.

In Christ, Gretchen Roe

LITURGICAL MINISTERS

Please remember that you are responsible for your ministry when scheduled. You are asked to find a replacement for your ministry when you are unavailable to serve.

Due to the protocols that need to be established before public Masses are able to be resumed, Masses have been cancelled until further notice. Please watch the parish bulletin and website for future announcements.

Let us Pray…A Prayer for Memorial Day

God of power and mercy,
you destroy war and put down earthly pride.
Banish violence from our midst and wipe away our tears,
that we may all deserve to be called your sons and daughters.
Keep in your mercy those men and women who have died in the cause of freedom and bring them safely into your kingdom of justice and peace.
We ask this though Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen
