Fifth Sunday of Lent

"Sir, we would like to see Jesus." is the request made by some Greeks to Philip in today's gospel. The Greeks along with many others were very curious about Jesus – they had heard things about Jesus; now they want to see Jesus. But was it enough just to see Jesus?
To see Jesus is one thing, but to follow (or believe in) Jesus is quite another. Ruth Burrows says this in her book To Believe In Jesus:
Faith in Jesus, the Son of Man, is very, very rare. If what I say is true it is a depressing assertion. It would be even more depressing if there were nothing we could do about it. As it is, we are set over a gold mine, a shovel is put in our hands, we are given the strength to dig and the absolute assurance that if we do so we shall find. No special gifts are required, no superhuman effort, only resolution and the taking of trouble. Everyone is given a chance, no one is excluded. What happens? Some of us at any rate set to work and dig but what we find is not at all what we expected. We expected a glistening nugget and instead all we have in our weary hands is an ugly, shapeless lump of metal. 'It is gold, pure gold,' we are told. But it doesn't look like gold, it doesn't feel like gold. You say you believe in Jesus. He told you that if you dug you would find the treasure. Where is your faith?

Too often when we come to see Jesus we come with our own agendas and our own hardness of heart. We want Jesus to fit into what we want. When something is asked of us we often reject it. When we are asked to lose the life we know, we say NO – we will not take the risk – we lack faith. How many of us struggled with various aspects of the parish merger and said NO to some things asked of us? What would have happened had Abraham and Sarah said NO when God asked them to leave their home and "go to a place I will show you," never to return home again? What would have happened had Jesus said NO to the cross? Yet, when we are asked to let go so that God can "create a clean heart in me" we often say NO. Instead, we prefer to remain a grain of wheat and are too frightened to let it fall on the ground and be transformed into something beautiful that will yield a rich harvest.

Indeed, it is risky business to surrender in faith and to believe, really believe, that Jesus can change us. WE as Church have such exciting potential before us, but we must work together, we must support each other, we must challenge each other, we must learn to weep with each other, we must listen to each other, we must be patient with each other, but most importantly we must believe in Jesus.

Many of us cry out the words of Jesus: "Now my soul is troubled. What shall I say: Father, save me from this hour?" But our faith journey has brought us to this hour - this place in this time. Our prayer, our response to God's call, our longings and desires, our faith (however broken all this may be) have brought us here to this very moment in time. Can we then say along with Jesus: "But it was for this very reason that I have come to this hour. Father, glorify your name!" Do we truly recognize the journey that has brought us to this place and time? Do we have the courage to respond to what is being asked of us now? Let us pray in the coming week of our Lenten journey that we will have the determination and the desire to be steadfast on the journey ahead, and that all we say and do will truly reflect our belief in Jesus. Fr. Geno Doyle

MUSIC & LITURGY NOTES

Engaging in the Liturgy—From Ritual to Action: According to the first Vatican II document, the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, the purpose of liturgy is "to achieve in the most effective way possible human sanctification and God's glorification." The goal then is to make us holy and to give God praise. Although these may seem like different tasks, they are really the same, for it is through holiness of life that we do give glory to God. Therefore, the quality of our liturgy must ultimately be judged by the quality of our spiritual lives, and in particular, by the concern and care that we show for each other and those in need.

We have been discussing the need to engage more fully with the details of the liturgy—the messages we encounter in symbol and Word. But the point is not merely to appreciate the eloquence of the reader, marvel at the tuneful harmonies of the choir or the reverence of the Eucharistic minister, or make your own responses more deliberate. The details must lead us to the greater vision. As we engage with and reflect on our experience in the liturgy, we are led to ask, "What does this tell me about who Christ is and what Christ is doing in the world today?" As our faith is strengthened, as details reveal deeper truths and our understanding grows, we face the inherent challenge: Our actions must reflect this. If we claim to be followers of Christ, then we must be imitators of Christ. We must respond—we must BE CHRIST in the world today!

QUESTION OF THE WEEK
Fifth Sunday of Lent
Based on the Gospel (John 22:20-33)

Theme: Death and New Life

Step One: As you hear this reading, what words or phrases strike you? What in this reading touches your heart? What lingers in your memory?

Step Two: Reflect and discuss:

Question for Children: Name one thing you can do or stop doing that will help you have a better friendship with Jesus.

Question for Youth: Sometimes one thing needs to die in order for something new to be born. When have you experienced this in your own life? What do you need to let go of now for something new to grow?

Question for Adults: Name one area in your life that you need to let go of, to die to, in order to rise with new life.

The Faith Formation Office is located at the West Campus. Office hours are Monday through Friday, 9-3.

Prayer ~ Fasting ~ Almsgiving

Almsgiving is about more than giving money or "things." Almsgiving is also about giving our time and talents to serve those in need.

When we receive the Body of Christ, we are transformed into the Body of Christ. In a sense, our eyes are transformed into the eyes of Christ to see the poor, the needy and the outcast in our communities. Our ears are transformed into the ears of Christ to hear the stories of hurt and to help heal loneliness. Our hearts are transformed into the heart of Christ to cry with, laugh with and join our lives to those in need. Our hands are transformed into the hands of Christ to reach out, to give bread, to touch. Our feet are transformed into the feet of Christ to walk with those who have no one. We transform into Christ's body as a community when we continue the work of his eyes, ears, hearts, hands and feet.

Reflect:
How can we, as a parish community, live as members of the Body of Christ throughout the season of Lent and beyond? What are several specific things we need to do to be the hands, feet, and eyes of Christ and so transform our world?

A

Catholic IQ answer:

a) For centuries, the faithful would stop their work or school activity to pray the Angelus when they heard the parish bells ring at noon. The Angelus recounts the Angel Gabriel's visit to Mary (see Luke 1:26-38). The Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord is on March 25, 9 months before Christmas.

TENEBRAE is Latin for shadows or darkness. Its distinctive features are the gradual extinction of all lights in the church which symbolizes the temporary triumph of the prince of darkness over the Light of the World as well as the loud noises made at the end of the service by the assembly and ministers suggesting the earthquake described in the Passion Narratives. All are invited to attend on Good Friday at 8:00 pm at St. Mary's Cathedral Upper Church, St. Cloud.

Hungering for a Healthy Harvest

CRS Rice Bowl

CRS Rice Bowl brings our Lenten journey back to Africa this week, to the Democratic Republic of Congo. We join our fasting in solidarity with people who go hungry, and we remember in prayer the importance of building a community that is willing to support those most in need.

Please remember to take an Easter Egg(s) for the Easter Dinner Basket Drive. Your donation helps support the local Food Shelves. Your generosity is greatly appreciated! Donations will be accepted through March 29th.

Another way to help our local Food Shelves this Easter...

If you shop at Coborn's and choose not to use your ham cards or have extra cards/ receipts, you can help our area food shelves. We are able to combine cards and obtain hams to be used by the food shelves. Simply bring the filled/partially filled cards or 'ham' receipts to the parish offices or place in the collection basket. We will take care of the rest. NOTE: As requested by Coborn's, please keep the entire receipt intact (receipt section and "ham stamp" section). Thank you!

NURSERY AVAILABLE: Plans are underway for a Nursery to be available during the 10:30 am Mass at Mary of the Visitation beginning April 12th. Our nursery will be run by volunteers—so the families who use the nursery are asked to take turns a few times each quarter volunteering in the nursery.

Because the safety of our children is top priority:

- There must be at least two adults present in the Nursery to care for the children.
- All volunteers must complete the Diocesan safe environment training (available on-line) and a background check authorization (through the parish office) prior to helping in the Nursery.

James and Emily Adelman will be coordinating the volunteers. Please contact Emily at em.adel731@gmail.com if you can assist and want be included in the nursery staff rotation, or if you have additional questions.
